Moderately slow

Know I stand in line
practise every day

Until you think you have the time to spend an

Evenin' with me.
Meaning come through.

And if we go someplace to dance,
But then I think I'll wait until the

Know that there's a chance you won't be leavin' with me.
Evenin' gets late and I'm alone with you.

Then afterwards we drop into a quiet little place and have a drink or two.
And the time is right, your perfume fills my head, the stars get red, and oh, the night is so blue.

Then I go and spoil it all by sayin' some thin' stupid, like "I love you."
I can love you.
See it in your eyes that you despise the same old lines you heard the night before.

And though it's just a line to you, for me it's true and never seemed so right before.
